Commemorated today...

Saint Anna was the daughter of the priest Matthan and his wife Mary. She was of the tribe of Levi and the lineage of Aaron. According to Tradition, she died peacefully in Jerusalem at age 79, before the Annunciation to the Most Holy Theotokos.

During the reign of St Justinian the Emperor (527-565), a church was built in her honor at Deutera. Emperor Justinian II (685-695; 705-711) restored her church, since St Anna had appeared to his pregnant wife. It was at this time that her body and maphorion (veil) were transferred to Constantinople.

Troparion - Tone 4

Divinely-wise Anna, you carried in your womb the pure Mother of God, who gave life to our Life. Therefore, you are now carried joyfully to the inheritance of heaven, to the abode of those who rejoice in glory, where you seek forgiveness of sins for those who faithfully honor you, ever blessed one.

Kontakion - Tone 2

*We celebrate the memory of the progenitors of Christ, and with faith we ask their help, that deliverance from every affliction be granted to those who cry out:
"Be with us, O God, who in Your good pleasure glorified them."*

A Tip for your Vacation...

If you are away from your home parish, make sure to find an Orthodox Church near wherever you travel* and attend Saturday Vespers and the Divine Liturgy on Sunday and major Holy Days there. Remember that God never forgets us, so let us not forget Him; and also: there is no vacation from God!

to search for an Orthodox Church, go to our website, home page, and enter a zip code of a place where you plan to go into a search window at the bottom of the page.*

Today's Memorial Offering

- St. John's Cross – in memory of Rose Brelinsky on Anniversary of her Death – by John and Helen Wanko.

Welcome to our Parish

We warmly welcome all families, friends and guests to our parish. We are glad to pray with you here today. Over the past eighty-six years, hundreds of people have called Ss. Peter and Paul their home. If this parish is the kind of a spiritual home you have been searching for, we would love to have you become a part of our family.
