On the Will of God and on Freedom

“The best thing of all is to surrender to God’s will, and bear affliction with confidence in God. The Lord seeing our affliction will never give us too much to bear. If we seem to ourselves to be greatly afflicted, it means that we have not surrendered to the will of God”.

St. Silouan the Athonite

A Tip for your Vacation...

If you are away from your home parish, make sure to find an Orthodox Church near wherever you travel* and attend Saturday Vespers and the Divine Liturgy on Sunday and major Holy Days there. Remember that God never forgets us, so let us not forget Him; and also: there is no vacation from God!

to search for an Orthodox Church, go to our website, home page, and enter a zip code of a place where you plan to go into a search window at the bottom of the page.*

Welcome to our Parish

We warmly welcome all families, friends and guests to our parish. We are glad to pray with you here today. Over the past eighty-six years, hundreds of people have called Ss. Peter and Paul their home. If this parish is the kind of a spiritual home you have been searching for, we would love to have you become a part of our family.
