"Thank You"

from the Sakran Family for the St. Nicholas Gifts

I wanted to thank you for the box of Christmas gifts that you sent our family; we received the huge package today, and were completely awestruck at the amount of gifts inside, all beautifully wrapped. They are now sitting under our Christmas tree, and I can't wait for Christmas morning when our twin sons, Michael and Gabriel, will be able to play with their new presents. I also want to thank you for being thoughtful and including gifts for our soon-to-be-born child - we're having a daughter, named Mariamna (Mary for short.)

I can't tell you how much this means to our family to receive these Christmas gifts; it is a big help for the seminarians, at a time when income is low and we're trying to do our best to give our families a decent Christmas. People like you and the other families at Ss. Peter and Paul Church make it possible. Thank you so much.

Be assured of our continued prayers for you. We hope to visit the church soon and thank everyone in person. Even though this is our last year here at St. Vladimir's Seminary, we will always remember your kindness for the rest of our days.

In Christ,

Fr. Michael, Melanie, Michael Jr. and Gabriel Sakran
