Church Etiquette*

Special Considerations During Liturgy

- Receiving the Antidoron, Holy Bread - When receiving the Antidoron after Holy Communion or after venerating the cross at the end of Divine Liturgy, do not allow the crumbs to drop, since this is blessed bread. Children will need assistance so that they do not take too many pieces, and so they are not careless in handling the bread. After returning to your seat, you may eat the holy bread as you say the prayers after Holy Communion silently while others are communing.

- Children in Church - Christ said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for such is the kingdom of heaven" (Mt. 19:14). It is possible for young children to remain in church throughout a service if they are taught to be quiet and respectful. Please be respectful to those around you if your child becomes fussy or out of control, and take him from the nave of the church for a while. If a very young child needs a snack, please clear away any leftover pieces. However, the child should not have anything in his mouth when he comes to Holy Communion. It is not acceptable at any time to chew gum in church. It is never appropriate to allow a child to run down the aisles, play loudly, or carry noisy toys. Eventually, children will be able to spend longer times in the Liturgy. That is where they should be, but remember, the reason for coming to church is to pray and worship. Plan to have your children use the restroom and get a drink before church begins, and don't allow them to come and go continually. In the beginning, consider bringing your children into the church closer to the end of the Liturgy, to "practice" church behavior. Teach them that they are visiting God's very special house, and they will need to have very special manners there.
