Church Etiquette*

Church Clothing

Whenever we are preparing to come to church, we should remember that we will be entering the House of God. This requires that we dress modestly and with reverence. Generally this will mean that we want to wear our best clothing. At any age it is not appropriate to wear shorts, pants that are too casual, short skirts, tight-fitting or transparent garments, garments with low necklines, or strapless tops. Some Orthodox traditions require women to wear dresses or skirts with covered shoulders and backs. Although men are not required to wear a suit and tie, they will want to make an effort to dress as if they were going to an important event. Clothing with logos or printed material distracts others from praying. Some women have the pious tradition of covering their heads. Men and boys must remove their hats when entering the church. What could be a more important meeting than that with God Himself? The purpose in choosing our clothing wisely is that we model what is important to us by how we dress.

Church Banquets

Often, in order to serve a large group of people at the same time, caterers will preset the banquet tables with the first course. Before beginning to eat it's important to remember to wait for everyone to be seated and for the blessing of the food. If there is a program, please remember to listen politely instead of having side conversations that will distract others from hearing. Remember the context in which this banquet is being held; since it is a parish event, dress respectfully and modestly.

Vacation Planning

If you go away during summer on vacation trips, make sure to find an Orthodox Church near wherever you travel and attend the Divine Liturgy on Sunday and major Holy Days there. Our website will help you to find any orthodox Church in USA and Canada. You might be tired of hearing it, but it's important truth we should never forget – there is no vacation from God!
